

Welcome

General Safety

This garden is open to the public for the benefit of nursing charities. While we have taken reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of our visitors, please remember to stay on the marked paths, avoid hazards and take care to avoid damaging plants. Extra care should be taken during bad weather.

Can we ask you to please respect any areas marked Private and please keep children under supervision at all times.

Car Parking

The National Garden Scheme and the garden/land owner accept no responsibility in respect of loss or damage to motor vehicles, the contents thereof or any injury to the occupants thereof or persons visiting the car parks, save any loss or damage directly attributable to the negligence of the National Garden Scheme.

Photography

The taking of photographs, videos, etc. for commercial purposes in this garden is forbidden without the prior permission of the garden owner. The use of tripods or similar equipment likely to interfere with the viewing of other garden visitors is also not permitted.

Thank you and enjoy your visit

In visiting gardens, visitors do so at their own risk and are not in any contractual or other relationship with the National Garden Scheme. Accordingly, no responsibility can be accepted by the National Garden Scheme for loss or damage suffered by visitors howsoever arising, including for the avoidance of doubt in relation to breach of contract, misrepresentation or negligence by any person including any garden owner or the National Garden Scheme (except the negligence of the National Garden Scheme which is proved to have caused death or personal injury).
