

How to: make nutty apple rings for your garden birds this winter

Things you'll need:
Wild bird seed
Peanut butter
Apples
Twine
Scissors
Knife

Step 1.
Slice the apples into rings, remove the core and thread twine through the hole, tying to create a loop.

Step 2.
Spread the lower half of the apple slices with peanut butter.

Step 3.
Dunk into bird seed so that it sticks to the peanut butter and they're ready to hang in your garden!
