

GARDEN PHOTOGRAPHER NEEDED IN OXFORDSHIRE

Do you love garden visiting?

Can you take great photographs?

Would you like to be part of a lively team of people raising money for charity?

The National Garden Scheme in Oxfordshire is looking for a volunteer who loves gardens and photography to join our team. We need someone to help create a library of gorgeous pictures of the gardens that open across the county from January to September in aid of vital nursing and health charities. Car driver essential.

Core activities:

- Liaising with the publicity officer and social media co-ordinator to provide a constant supply of pictures for Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and for local and national press.
- Getting to know the gardens that open for the National Garden Scheme in Oxfordshire and liaising with their owners.
- Finding new and interesting angles in gardens that open regularly for the National Garden Scheme.
- Being available to photograph gardens through the seasons to keep our social media accounts up to date.

If you're interested in this role, contact Marina Hamilton-Baillie, County Organiser, National Garden Scheme, Oxfordshire, including examples of your work (marina.hamilton-baillie@ngs.org.uk).
