

Extract from the Minutes of the Queen's Institute's
Executive Committee 29.6.27

The Duke of Portland said that the special point he wished to bring before the Committee that afternoon was in connection with the Gardens Scheme, which owed its initiative to Miss Wagg and had been most wonderfully organised by Lady Georgiana Mure and Mrs Stobart. In addition to raising a substantial amount this year, these ladies were proposing that the Scheme should be a permanent one, and he asked Lady Georgiana to put the proposals before the Committee.

Lady Georigiana Mure explained that as a result of the June Gardens over £3,000 had been raised, which gave an average of £12 per garden. They also had the promise of a large number of gardens for July, and August. It seemed possible that a regular income could be raised through the gardens and they suggested that the garden owners should be approached so that they might be open to the public each year, or a roll of gardens might be formed, from which a selection could be made each year.....

Note by R. Crawahay: When I took over in 1956 I found this booklet of "June Gardens" opened in 1927, but nothing else for that year; nothing at all for 1928 and one copy of "The Gardens of England and Wales" produced in 1929; then nothing again until 1932, but a book for each year from then on.

Unfortunately the record cards are unreliable - e.g. we know ~~from~~ the "June Gardens" produced in 1927 that Borde Hill was open on 1.6.27; but if one were to go by the record card for that garden one would think it had first opened in 1937, that being the first date written on the existing card by those who kept the records at that time.
