

National Garden Scheme Centenary Collection

New plants. New garden products. New gifts. New customers.

For 100 years the National Garden Scheme has inspired people through beautiful gardens, passionate gardeners and memorable days out. With more than 3,300 private gardens opening each year and over £78 million raised for nursing and health charities since 1927, the National Garden Scheme is a trusted and much-loved brand with a unique purpose. Beneficiaries include: Carers Trust, Macmillan Cancer Support, Marie Curie, Hospice UK, Parkinson's UK, QICN.

As we approach our centenary in 2027 we're bringing that inspiration into garden centres and retail spaces with the National Garden Scheme Centenary Collection, an exclusive range of plants, garden products and gifts.

This is an opportunity for retailers to partner with a brand that combines heritage, trust and charitable impact, while attracting new customers and being part of a nationwide celebration of gardens, generosity and community.

By stocking National Garden Scheme products, you'll offer customers something with real purpose while supporting causes that touch every community.

Welcome to the National Garden Scheme Centenary Collection. Together, let's celebrate 100 years of great gardens, great cakes and great causes.

CLEMATIS QUEEN'S NURSE™

Raymond Evison Clematis

A full flower with each sepal having a broad central band of deep rosy pink with paler edges and prominent primrose anthers. These are produced in late spring and early summer, with repeat blooms in late summer early autumn. A full plant with flowers from base to tip. The flowers from the older wood are deeper almost solid in colour, whereas the blooms from new growth show a distinctive deep pink bar with lighter pink edged tepals.

Order from Baldwin Nursery, New Leaf Plants and Garden Centre Plants | RRP £24.99

APPLE LEGACY™

Frank P. Matthews Trees

This striking colourful apple is very disease resistant, productive, and naturally stores well into the winter. It offers a firm, crisp bite with a sweet, aromatic flavour and citrus notes. Its compact habit suits gardens, while mid-to-late season blossom ensures consistent yields. Naturally scab-resistant, the fruit can remain on the tree into winter, allowing fresh picking over many weeks - an outstanding garden apple.

Selection of rootstocks, 12L and bare root. Contact: enquiries@fpmatthews.co.uk, 01584 810214 | RRP £60

GLORIOUS DAY (Noa15161010)

Whartons

A striking floribunda rose with clusters of vibrant yellow blooms edged in raspberry with a light fragrance. Flowering freely from summer to autumn, it offers continuous colour. Its upright, bushy habit suits borders and containers. Glossy dark green foliage, flushed red in spring, complements blooms reaching 7cm across. Grows to approximately 70cm high and 60cm wide.

Available from Whartons Garden Roses, Pot Size 3L. Contact: sales@whartons.co.uk. | RRP £16.99
